

20. Fred Volkmann to Alexander Krueger, March 28, 1892

[10] FRED VOLKMANN TO ALEXANDER KRUEGER, MARCH 28, 1892
Slides 199 - 200.

Evanston
Illnois
March
28

5 Deares Alex we are all well we sold the horses to day on monday for $180 I hovent no work to do now I just need to saw a little wood we baugh some nice wood 10 for $4 a cord and got old stumps for nothing our old Millie is very afraid of the train and other gray horse we sold ran a way from that man he is very surry he bought 15 it he broke the new carrage all up in pieces my fathe got hurt by the horse he has been laying around a baught a week old Millie jumped righ on his heel its swelled up very 20 thick we are glad we got red of them we had a nice konsort in the babtist curch a trip to China we all got in free they have us a ticked for nothing the other peop{le} 25 hado pay fifty cents for a tickett and for chirdren twenty-five cents this is a beautiful town very nice buildings I wis_ you could see this city some day I wish you would 30 come and see us some d{a}y our house is west of Evanston its one of the old k{...}k house the a fence on top of the house we live up—stairs and old woman living down 35 ~~don~~ stairs who gets s{...}ll every day {+} my mother alway gets goes to town with her some times I hope your are all well and not sick I dont like to be sick I we got 40 a postle card to day the old uncle Goetsh was dead my mothe felt very bad †— when she herd it we live on washington street
45 F. V.