

50. Albert Goetsch to Alexander Krueger, September 24, 1895

[40] ALBERT GOETSCH TO ALEXANDER KRUEGER, SEPTEMBER 24, 1895
Slide 263.

Juneau Sep 24 / 95
Dear Nephew
I received your letter and sa that you got 5 home but I beat you.
I thought of taking A rest till noon but as I got home the Clover huller was there I had to pick rite in 10 I never was so tired this summer
I thrashed 26 1/2 bushels of Alsike<sup>1</sup> from 4 acres you better tell your pa to come to Beaver dam they are going to have the best 15 fa<sup>r</sup>ir<sup>2</sup> they ever had I am going thursday and I like to see him come your Uncle Albert
Juneau Wis

---

<sup>1</sup> Alsike is a type of clover.

<sup>2</sup> The author writes “farr” and then adds the dot over the first <r> to make it an .