Oct. 15. 1896
Dear Cousin Alex
I thought I
5 would write you a few lines to let you know that I am well and hope you are the same. I am going to school every 10 day. I am in the second reader. I am learning hard to be a Professor.
Those doves you gave me are alive yet. They laid two 15 eggs and they were rotten
I got one dog. I call him Fido. I got four cats. I call one Pussy and one Mollie one susen one 20 T-o-m I got two little calves one is a bull. The other is a cow. My sisters are getting along well one is as fat as butter.
25 the other is a runner. I got a dandy new suit
I look like a dude.
My pa is gone thrashing every day. Uncle Otto 30 is painting his house.
I must stop now fore it is late already. right soon Best regards 35 to all your cousin
Henry
